

THE HIDDEN
KINGDOM of GOD:
THE VISION of WISDOM

Retreat Leaders

Margaret Barker is a biblical scholar, who has spent many years researching the mystical traditions of the Jerusalem temple. They have almost disappeared from the Bible and yet are the root of later Christian mysticism. The Holy Wisdom was the Mother figure in this ancient faith. She gave her children spiritual vision, and her oil anointed the Messiah. Memories of this Lady shaped the later veneration of Mary.

*Margaret is a past president of the Society for Old Testament Study and a Methodist local preacher. She has published nineteen books, including An Extraordinary Gathering of Angels (2004), The Gate of Heaven (2008), The Hidden Tradition of the Kingdom of God (2007) and Temple Mysticism. (2011). (www.margaretbarker.com)*

Julienne McLean is a psychologist, Jungian analyst and spiritual director in North London. She has had a lifelong involvement in the Christian mystical tradition, mainly teaching and writing on Jungian psychology and Carmelite spirituality. She is involved with the Centre for Applied Carmelite Spirituality (www.oxcacs.org). She is the author of 'Towards Mystical Union' (2003, 2013, 2017), a commentary on St Teresa of Avila's book, 'The Interior Castle'.

Revd. Michael Gartland is an Anglican priest and UKCP psychotherapist. He leads an NHS chaplaincy service in West Yorkshire and has a research and teaching background in fourteenth century English mystical writings and Buddhist psychology.
